Saturday, October 7, 2006

University of Iowa College of Law

Iowa City, Iowa

8:00 Registration (College of Law lobby)

8:30 Program

9:30 Adjourn

This one hour interactive ethics program is an introduction to some of the phrases and concepts that are new to the 2005 Iowa Rules of Professional Conduct. Hypotheticals will be used, and there will be a glossary handout with the phrases and concepts discussed, and where they can be found in the Rules.

Presenter: Professor Margaret Raymond teaches Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Professional Responsibility, and Basic Federal Income Taxation at the University of Iowa College of Law, where she has been a member of the faculty since 1995. She is a recipient of the Law School's Collegiate Teaching Award. Professor Raymond served on the Iowa Rules of Professional Conduct Drafting Committee and was recently appointed by the Iowa Supreme Court to the Rules Monitoring Committee. She is a frequent provider of CLE programming throughout eastern Iowa.
